MUNDAY .- - - May 5, 1856.

NOW STHE TIME TO ADVERTISE. readers custom, now is the time to advertise. around to find where they can buy to the best advantage. Don't expect them to go from one street to another. Hundreds have not time, and they read the advertisements in the Democrat and go as were done here last August, can lie, of course. directly to buy. If your advertisement is not in Those who commit such crimes don't confess it, the Democrat, you may lose many chances to sell. Hundreds read our paper every day. Our circuin the country at an unprecedented rate.

The Democrat has the largest circulation west of the mountains among Democratic papers, and, at the present rate of increase, will soon have more of the Mississippi. Our terms are moderate to self to increase his business as much as possible, and the best way to accomplish that end, is to ad vertise in the Democrat, which is universally

An attempt was subsequently but it is a fact that the reign of party law is es- the disgraceful blot stands on record. are indersed by the Common Council of this city;

Mr. Gilliss, from the Commance on Police, to whom was reterred the Mayor's message in regard to the election rous, made the following report, which was adopted tablished in Louisville. The deeds of last August they have been uniformly defended and excused, and for the most part justified. The men who indorse the outrages of the 6th of August last are re-elected to office, and men indicted by grand juries for participation in the crimes of that day appointed to office. No one has been punished for any of the diabolical deeds; nor is it at all likely that any one will be. Indeed, it is idle to expect it. For more than twelve months lawlessness has been rampant in this city, and it only wants an occasion to break out, at any time, into deeds or atrocity. A contested election would be looked to now with painful apprehensions. Will the naturalized elections of Louisyille be allowed to vote, is really and to a second to second the control of an any votins place within the city. All apprehensions. ralized citizens of Louisyille be allowed to vote, is a question common with all classes; whilst it is loudly proclaimed in the streets that they never shall vote. The right to vote is at the mercy of a of the preperty known as "Quinn's Row," at the correspondent to the preper shall vote. The right to vote is at the mercy of a dominant party, and exercised or not, at their discretion. It is by this frail tenure that rights granned by the constitution and laws of Kentucky are to be enjoyed. Outside of Louisville this may be thought igcredible; but the truth is plain enough here to any one. The deeds of the sixth of August are familiar to the world; but they were not alone ; they were preceded and followed by outrages of enormous turpitude, that are overshadowed by the atrocious character of that irremoving the rutbush from the premier residence of said that he had take the control of the control o day, and no one has been punished for them. Not long . go, a German shoemaker, a quiet, peaceable man, was accosted on the street by one of the patrole Americans, and told to hurran for Sam. He didn't heed the request, was knocked down and shot dead; his companion who was with him was arrested and carried to jail, and we have no doubt the man shot would have been apprehended and tried, only he was dead. But the murderer, although known, was not found; no reward has been offered for him. We need not recite all the outrages comway, the nouses occupied by foreigners were mostly suppress with guilless and underding passers by were the victim is a foreigner, it is of no consequence. These lawless acts would be comparatively insignificant, but for the true convictions, with the fixed purpose of suppressing the vote of this city, which was thoroughly accomplished last August, and which, we have every reason to believe, is intended to be accomplished hereafter. After we had seen the officers of this city, in three of the wards, elected by club law, in May last; when we foresaw preparations for the same operations on mitted with perfect impunity here. They have foresaw preparations for the same operations on the sixth of August, we asked for more voting places, that there might be no crowds at the polls, and no excuse for violence. The City Council—all Council, an . Turther that this report be adopted. Know-Nothing—discovered that they had no power to grant the request. We asked that the parties might agree to have responsible men at each poll, to see that peace and order were maintained; this overture was derided. We asked that the officers of the election should be divided between the that the Know-Nothings would carry every ward he is not " as other men are?' in the city; although we knew, and they knew, that in one of them, at least, their opponents were at least two to their one; bets were openly and shamelessly made on this proposition; so well was the mode of operation understood. The effect of mob law on Louisville an interested party may deny. Those who raise mobs and trample down law and order, or approve such deeds and those who work mischief will deny, if they can, that the mischief is done; but we know, property-holders know; all observing men know lation in the city is increasing very rapidly, and the ill effects on this city. They can trace the evil to its cause. They know that whilst Louisville pays a heavy penalty for crime, she is not ruined; but the harvest of this season, that all our neighboring cities enjoy, we have lost; and the continuance of the present condition of things cansubscribers than any paper published in the valley not be tolerated. The following extract from the address will be indorsed by every true man in the South, and by every sound national man everywhere:

His view of the platform of the Know-Nothings s thus emphatically expressed: "No Southern Tuesday night. American can successfully defend the platform;" The State Sentinel says that a new Fusion and adds, "Southern Americans can neither stand on the platform or support the candidates."

This wholesome advice has had its effect in Arkansas. The papers show a perfect stampede from the Dark Lanternites.

Now, the polls had been taken in that Ward, and foreigners beaten by scores; lies had been circulated, and the mob had spread itself in gangs from the polls, chasing and beating foreigners and stoning their houses, long before the shoot

Richardson was seen stoning a house, as has been proved, He gave an account himself of his being along with the mob, and knocking down a German, whose provocation was a remark, "I ish the man for the Americans." After all this Richardson was wounded with bird shot, and he was the innocent individual wantonly shot down. The repeated lies of the Journal about the shooting of innocent Americans can only be detected once in a while, when he ventures to mention a ase. The instance here brought forward is unf rtunate, and shows the editor's short memory We know nothing about the man and boy along with Richardson; but certain it was, they were in the midst of a riot, whether innocent or not, and in company with a guilty man, according to his own showing.

Just suppose an invading army in a city, perpe trating all manner of outrages, sometimes meeting with resistance, that lead to fresh and more bloody assaults, and we have the condition of Louisville on the 6th of August last. But these innocently slaughtered Americans were, after all, not seriously hurt. They were peppered with bird shot. What is expected naturally, when a gang of bullies undertake to invade a community, knock men down by scores, and stone their houses, but that some of their victims will shoot, if they have a oun to do it with? The wonder is, that in the reign of terror in this city, where such infamous utrages were perpetrated, so few of the invaders

Again and again the editor of the Journal has old his readers that the foreigners shot first When a man is set upon by a crowd of bullies, with brass knuckles, clubs, and stones, chased to his the most delightful resorts in the whole western house, and his house stoned, he is the first to country. Mr. P. wishes to quit farming, and will shoot. Why should his murderers shoot? If every man assailed at the polls by gangs of bullies had shot dead the scoundrels, he would have been justified before God and man; and if the brutal scoundrels that fired Quinn's row, and stood howling around it, shooting the wretched inmates as they attempted to escape, had been shot down by scores, it would have been the best atonement for horrid crimes that could have been made. It is even made quite a grave charge that foreigners nad arms in their houses, as if the free citizens of the United States are to be disarmed, and not allowed to defend themselves; that after being repeatedly mobbed and threatened, as the Iris were in Quinn's row last year, they are no to take any precautions to defend themselves, or if they do, they are to be charged by professional liars with arming themselves to kill innocent people wantonly. It is a lie that any innocent man was shot except by the mob, unless he was shot accidentally, in being in the midst of a riot. We have heard of no case yet. Every few days the mob organ howls about the slaughter of American citizens, indiscriminate slaughter, but when the whole story is told, only three of the Know-Nothing party were killed, and one unknown, for nebody can tell how he came to his death, or whether he was a native or a foreiguer. The three that were killed, we have proved fell in unlawful acts of violence-fell as men may expect to fall when they attempt to kill other people. Nobody else was slaughtered or about innocent Americans slaughtered-wantonly shot down. It is a miserable falsehood, repeated by the guilty to hide the hideous character of and not valuable. their crimes from the world's detestation and ab-

But it does n't better the case at all fer the Know-Nothing party of this city, much less for the editor of the Journal. They had all the official power to protect life and property; their peace. They spurned all overtures, did n't keep the peace, and didn't try to do it. The editor of the Journal did n't ask them to do it : on the contrary, he called upon party force, and threatened party vengeance. He was captain of the gangs of miscreants he summoned to dreadful and viltainous deeds. He and his party are responsible for it all-every drop of blood that was shed. FOREIGN OFFICE, Feb. 9, 1856. I am directed by the Earl of Clarendon to ac usint you that, having referred to the War De partment your letter of the 12th ult., requesting that a small supply of arms may be furnished to the government of Costa Rica, his lordship has en informed by that Department, in reply, that 000 smooth bore muskets (nittons), which are not highly finished as the line pattern muskets 1842, can be supplied for this service at £1 3s each, or if it should be preferred, 2,000 of the line pattern muskets of 1852 can be furnished at 56.

As soon as Lord Clarendon is informed by you e the species of arms which you decide upon, he will communicate further with the War Department ed. Preparations are being made for opening a fair and request that the arms may be placed at your isposai. I have the honor to be, sir, your most bedient and humble servant, E. HAMMOND.

LONDON, Feb. 16, 1856. er Don Juan Rafael Mora, San Jose de Costa Rica Much esteemed sir and friend: The mail waich rings the correspondence of January 1st, from losta Rica, has not arrived, and in consequence nave nothing to say to you in regard to mercan-tile business. As to public matters, you will please to refer to my communications of to-day to he Minister. By this you will see that this gov-ernment is willing to put 2,000 muskets at my lisposal for the service of the Republic of Costa tica. Nothing is said in the note about the time f payment. However, I have not made up my of payment. However, I have not mind up my mind to take them previous to receiving instruc-tions from you, or which of the two kinds of areas to take. In case I should take them previous to your being able to write upon the subject, I will send them in the month of March, if a vessel sail-for Punta Arenas without further orders from you. Al this is very good, but I don't like the intelligence from Nicaragus, where it seems Walker is estab-ishing himself, firmer and firmer, every day. annot understand how the other States did n unite themselves from the beginning to expel him from Nicaragua. I have letters from Guatemals and San Salvador requiring me to request from this government help and succor; but what can be one for republics or people who do not make an exertion to help themselves. When I was telling Lord Clarendon that Costa Rica already had an was much pleased, and said "that was a right step," and I am persuaded that my having made that insinuation is one of the reasons for giving as the muskets. The questions pending between this country and the United States are very complicated, but there will be no war, for this plicated, but there will be no war, for this reason that the gontlemen in the great Republic observe that although the British nation do not boast say much on the subject, they are determined punish the Yankees very severely for the least in sult to the national honor. mand of Lieus. Col. Sanders was ordered to enter by the street leading along the west side of the plaza, and the east side was to be charged by the force under command of Col. Fry. With a whoep and a yell, a rush was made for the plaza, and as the troops were discovered by the enemy ascending the eminence which concealed the approach to the city, they were saluted with a volley of musbrisk and incessant firing was kept up by the ene my, but the fearless and undaunted for improvement lately manifested by Mr. Davis; his Mark Meddle Saturday night was very creditably that in less than five minutes the Americans were in the entire possession of the plaza. The Costa ticans, shunning an open fight, precipitately be ook themselves to the barricades and fortressed uses, and from those places of protection and con cealment continued an unremitting fire. Their cannon, too with thundering voice, gave testimony of the efficiency of their preparations for defense.

The cannon and amunition of the Costa Ricans were gallantly captured by Lt. Col. Sanders, and placed under the charge of Capt. McArdle. Several desperate attempts to re-take the cannon were nsuccessfully made by the Costa Ricans In the mean time fitteen or twenty riflemen had derly conduct. James discharged and Sarah held tationed themselves on the roof of a building rom which they could plainly discover a large oody of the enemy on the back streets. A contin-lous fire was kept up by those gallant fellows, and at least a hundred of the enemy fell from their destructive aim. The conflict became too fierce for the Costa Rican invaders, and 300 of them in a body were discovered making their rapid retreat in the direction of San Juan del Sur. Following the retreat of the 300, about 12 o'clock in the day the enemy received a re-inforcement of 250 mer from Virgin Bay. Capt. Waters, of the Rangers, who held possession of the tower surmounting the unfinished Cathedral on the north side of the plaza, immediately communicated to Gen. Walker aformation of their approach, and a body of men leave. was sent to protect that portion of the town. In the mean time, Capt. Waters and his Rangers, from heir convenient position, opened upon them with heir rifles, and did most signal execution. The intention of the enemy of completely surrounding the city and hemming the Democratic forces in the plaza was thwarted with most gratifying success t was not accomplished, however, without a long and flerce firing at the enemy from all four of the orners of the plaza.

The northwest corner was held by Col. Don Brune Natzmer and Maj. O'Neil, with their command and over a hundred dead bodies of the enemy gave signal proof of the galiantry of those officers and the intrepidity of their men. The southwest cor-ner was in charge of Captains Rudier and Mason, with their companies, and that, with the excep-tion of the position held by Lieut. Col. The battle had now raged from 8 o'clock in the notning until noon around the plaza, and the fir ng then began to slacken. It was now discovered that the enemy were secretly about to seize the outlding on the northeast corner of the plaza. To prevent this ten volunteers were called for to en

The Costa Ricans then retreated with precipits ion hotly pursued by their assailants, until they eached an adobe wail, where they made a stand. This was forced, and the enemy again sought safety in flight. In the further prosecution of the arsuit Lieut. Gay was mortally wounded, and ouis, known as "French Louis," was killed.— ieut. Gay was in the first battle of Rivas, and in all the subsequent conflicts of Nicaragua, and a colder and more determined man never lived. He died from an excess of gallantry, from reckless ex-posure to the enemy's fire. He was the projector of this assault, and to him may be attributed in a great measure the triumph of the day. The enemy till pursued, made good their retreat, and little execution was afterward effected. The fight or the plaza had almost entirely ceased. The majority of Americans killed fell at the hands of those foreign miscreants, who have allied themselves with servilism against the Liberal party of Central America.

This second battle of Rivas was warmly con sted. Gan. Walker was cool, firm, and se essed throughout the entire engagement, and for several hours maintained steadily his position of horseback. He manifested no excitement—be-trayed no uncasiness as to the result, but exhibite of calm and sublime consciousness of ultimate vic tory. Cols. Fry and Don Bruno Natumer, Lieux Col. Sanders, Maj. Brewster, Markham, and O' Neil, who were in command of the battations, dis-played a degree of heroism and galisarty that could not fail of beneficial results. They were nobly supported by their subordinate officers, many of whom testified to their intrepidity. Some by neroic death, and others by numerous and painful wounds. To the Public

OF THE UNITED STATES An advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, lately published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schie dam Schnapps against counterfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being engaged in the manufac-ture of Schiedam Schnapps, were I to let it pass without notice, I might be considered among those he denominates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the imnense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the artisle manufactured by me, and the opinion of of the artisle manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage and transportant precludes the possibility of the deathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeathat I am included among those he designs to imdeath a minufacture of the property of the second transportation of t ts medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the deathat I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to a ince mine has been brought into competition with his. Not only have I succeeded in competing with him quality, but the constant and increasing demand for my article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the sitizens of the "Southern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The character of my Schie am Schnapps is too well established in those States to be injured by any such invidious publication. The motive of his advertisement is obvious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public, ublish my Copy Right, entered in the Southern Dis

rict of New York, on the 28th of December, 1854 (COPY RIGHT.) (UUFI BIGHI.)

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF New YORK,
Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth dedecember, Anno Bommi 1858, Barnard L. Simpse
he said vistrict, hath deposited in this office the it print or label, the title of which is in the words for ag, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schi ing to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schiedal Juniper Schnapps, a Superior Tonic Anti-Dyspeyt Invisorating Cordial," the right whereof he claims a author and proprietor, in conformity with an act to orgess, entitled "An act to amend the several act respecting copy rights." GEO. W. MORTON, Clerk of the Southern District of New York.

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town in Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous distilleries of the above article, which has been known as "Schnapps" for centuries.

attempt to make a wrong and untrue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam Schnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are counterfeits and impositions?
U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the sole importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody se, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last to abmit to his unjustifiable pretensions. The great and increasing demand for my Genuine Schiedam Schnapps in Louisville, and throughout Kenicky, has induced me to appoint Messrs. Clark & HNSON, Wholesale Druggists, No. 509 Main street, as my agents for supplying the trade at my regular prices, and they will always be furnished with a full stock of oth quarts and pints, safely packed, in good shipping I take pleasure on this occasion to tender my sincer thanks to the public in general, and to my friends in particular, for the kind liberality with which they have patronized me from my commencement of this enter-prize, and I assure them that I shall continue to provide them always with a genuine and superior article of Schiedam Schnapps. B. L. SIMPSON.

NEW YORK, March 10, 1856. mr22 d&wtje13

Caution to Western Merchants !

WOLFE'S Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps. This celebrated medicinal beverage is manufactured at the factory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Hol and. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article; and no preparation bear-ing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from his agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebra-ted grain-growing districts; is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle. As a means of preventing and correcting the disa-greeable and often dangerous effects produced upon he stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visita-ion to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the west, the south, and southwestere peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bialder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, May 2. SENATE.—Mr. Benjamin addressed the Senate at length on Kansas affairs. He said three times, within the short history of the Republic, had its internal peace been imperil-ed, and each time the disturbing element was the ame. When in 1854 it was finally sgreed to re-peal in terms that, which for more than a quarter of a century had ceased to have any active effect, that was used as ground for vituperation toward the South. She was accused of violating her plighted faith with very much the same regard to truth as that which was recently observed here in mendacious tales in regard to Kansas affairs. The seeking for other compromises than those in the Constitution was mistaken policy on the part of the South, and, thank Heaven, the South has at length become aware of her error. She has no longer any compromises to effer or accept. She would adhere to the Constitution. If its provis Whiskey—Sales of 600 bbls Ohio and Prison at 23@

He declared his purpose to join the Democratic party and use his utmost efforts to insure its success. Following the example of better and abler men than himself, he predicted that in its triumph the Constitution would be saved, good feeling re-stored, intolerance rebuked, equality of the States maintained, the corner-stone of the Government

Mr. Cass complimented Mr. Benjamin, saying the sentiments just uttered ought to find a response in every patriotic heart, and his object in rising was to say that his friend from Mississippi, Mr. Brown, had assailed squatter sovereignty, his old friend (laughter), and several of Mr. Brown's scattering weapons had hit him. Cries, "agreed, agreed."

Mr. Seward, in replying to the part of Mr. Benjamin's remarks affecting himself, said the gentleman might have defended his own partisan history and future course, wi hout bringing him before the Senete and courter. fore the Senate and country. Seven years ago, when he entered the Senate, being aware that every word said here was recorded at the expense of seven dollars and a half a column, he had an-nounced that on no occasion and under no circumstances should any member draw from him the statement, or words by which, independently of the measures he maintained or defended, it could be known whether he was a Whig, Democrat, or Abolitionist, or belonged to any one party or another. He thought it undignified thus to elevate the party and give it a place in the history of the

He had not risen to assign the objects or purpoes of his public actions; they explain themselves; f they do not, be was willing to rest under all the eproach which posterity might cast on him. Mr. Hale, alluding to the grossly personal re-narks upon him in Mr. Clay's recent speech, renarked that he had but one word to submit in reply, that it will take something besides malignity to redeem his imbecility from contempt. Mr. Clay sprung on his feet, greatly excited, saying, "I dety the Senator's malice as much as I condemn his baseness—no man shall assail my rights or those of my constituents and shirk his responsibility by skulking behind the plea of non-combatancy. If he had been animated by those heroic feelings which he professes, he would not come upon this floor, and under protection of its rules, seek immunity for his insolence.

"I knew he is pleased by this attention; there are those of his class, who, like the London attorunat Senator having twice declined his acquaintance. He saked the patience of the Senate for consuming so much of its time about a Senator who soils the carpet upon which he treads.

Mr. Hale replied he had never sought an introduction to him but once, and that was on professional business for the benefit of a citizen of Alabama, Cisy, for he should not suffer a conflict with one who had repeatedly eaten his own words. He would have more palatable meat than the Senator from Alabama it he should undertake to eat his. [Laughter.]

The President sent a message to Congress yes-terday, inclosing the correspondence of the Postmaster General with the Panama Railroad Company relative to the compensation for carrying the mails—the latter claiming a greater rate than has been hitherto allowed. The Department offered 18 cents per pound, but the Company insist on 22 cents, which would make for the year ending in March last nearly $138,000. The Postmaster General says he unwillingly yields to the unjust and exorbitant demands, rather than risk the consequences which might fellow the execution of sequences which might follow the execution of the Company's threat of throwing up the con-tract for carrying the mails—the line to Nicara-gua being withdrawn and the route to Panama being the only direct and expeditious change of communication between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The President indorses the Postmaster General's recommendation, that the latter be authorized to contract with the Panama Kailroad Company for the conveyance of the mails across the Istumus at price not exceeding $50,000 per annum sates.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Nature and Art. The spring in her beauty invites us again
To tune up our harp strings and sing;
From the impulse of nature we cannot refrain
In joining the raptures of spring. As the gay tiny sangster, whose sweet mellow notes Falls lightly and soft on the ear. And the shrill whippowill, on the forest-clad hill, Sings a welcome to spring of the year.

Thus a halo of music encircles around, And nature looks gay with delight, The lark in his glory ascends from the ground, To bask in effulgence of light. 'Midst organic changes exquisitely neat, While musical harmonies sing, And the great god of day, riding high on his way, Lighting up a bright pathway for spring. Yet transporting the thought to behold with the eye The workings of nature and art, And he that would see very soon must apply To BLISS ere the visions depart. And see the spring styles that have just come to hand, Surpassing in touch anything in our land, And for cash very cheap will be sold. Then come, all my friends, while the blooming of spring Makes your heart feel within you so light, For surpassing all this are the hats of C. Bliss, And wil fit your head neat but not tight. and last I must say unto those who don't pay Years have past since the first that you bought, f you don't pay the bill by the first day of May, I will sue you, which long since I ought.

Persons desirous of visiting the Cave ouring the approaching season will find the accommodations equal to those of the first-class hotels. The services of the old guides, Stephen, Mat, Nicholas, &c., have all been secured.

The Cave will be kept in connection with the celebrated stand, the "Bell Tavern," situated about 90 mies from Louivyille, and about the same distance from Nashville, on the Louisville and Nashville road, which can be reached by a daily line o. stages run by Carter & Thomas to "Bell's," 7 miles from the Cave, where conveyances will at all times be in readiness to convey visitors to the Cave.

The Cave is situated at a healthy and romantic spot on the banks of Green river, and has been explored in a direct route over 9 miles, and through the various avenues more than 150 miles.

It would be impossible to describe the grandeur and beauty of the Cave. The proprietors feel justified in saying that it is not equaled as a grand representative of nature by any other curiosity in the world, and they are well satisfied that a visit to the same will well-repay these who travel for pleasure or in search of the world, and they deful.

OLDHAMHOUSE,

From Hon. J. R. Underwood. I have seen many of Dr. Price's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were healed. It is certain that ulcers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Chronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Price, bearing testimony to his entire success.

Bowling Green, ky. JOS. R. UNDERWOOD.

A servant girl in my family was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medical treat ment, upon the whole she grew worse, until I leared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months past she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the eyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

Louisville, Ky. WM. L. BRECKINRIDGE.

From Judge Asher Graham,
(Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Price's patients. They appeared to have been very much diseased, almost beyond all hopes of recovery. They now seem to be perfectly relieved.
